

YELLOW FEVER

Notification:

Notify the district of the suspected case

Request support for case confirmation (taking blood samples and sending them to the reference laboratory)

Definition of suspect cases

Any case of fever ($>38^{\circ}\text{C}$) resistant to antimalarial treatment and presenting one or more of the following signs: jaundice, epistaxis, hematemesis, ecchymosis, gingivorrhagia, decreased diuresis, death.

Case management

1. Stage infection :

Fever	Paracetamol 500 mg 2x 2cp/d 1 malaria treatment according to FT Malaria
Vomiting	Metoclopramide 10mg 1 amp IM
Dehydration	ORS, Lactated Ringer's Solution
Agitation	Diazepam 10mg 2x ½ cp/d

2. Stage intoxication : Refer urgently

Both stages: associated infections and malaria

Additional measures to be taken

All suspected or confirmed cases must be protected from mosquito bites (mosquito nets, screens).