

CONFIRMED HIV INFECTION

Ø Initiate ARV treatment

Ø Give cotrimoxazole prophylaxis

Ø Treat, advise on and monitor existing infections

Ø If the child also has a severe infection, give appropriate treatment before transfer and transfer as a matter of urgency.

Ø Look for contact and clinical signs of tuberculosis;

- If positive, refer for further investigation;

- Give isoniazid preventive treatment if tuberculosis screening is negative

Ø Assess the child's diet and advise the mother accordingly

Ø Advising the mother on home care

Ø Review in 14 days, then once a month for 3 months, then every 3 months